LOST.—Wednesday morning between Paris and the first toll house on Winchester pike, a feather boa. Finder please leave at THE NEWS office.
MRS. W. T. GILKEY.

PERSONS who were absent from the city on the regular registration day or were prevented by sickness from registering, may register to-day or to-morrow at the County Clerk's office.

CARL CRAWFORD's barber shop is easily the best and most convenient place in Paris to get a shave, bath, haircut or shine. Three expert barbers furnish a quick and satisfactory service. Good bath service attached. (tf)

THE fine October weather and the beautiful Autumn leaves make a boat ride up Stoner a delightful morning or afternoon pleasure. The "Kentucky" is still running and may be engaged for parties.

GEN. JOHN B. GORDON, will deliver his lecture "The Last Days of The Confederacy," Monday night, Nov. 5th, at Cynthiana, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Several Parisians will go down to hear Gen. Gordon.

TO-MORROW night the Progressive Culture Club will give a Halloween Party at Odd Fellows Hall, for the benefit of the Library Fund. A substantial lunch will be served, and there will be pleasing music. Admission, twenty-five cents, fifteen for children.

INVITATIONS have been received here to the Silver Jubilee of Rev. Fr. Thos. S. Major, pastor of the Catholic church at Frankfort, Wednesday, Nov. 14, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. Solemn High Mass will be celebrated at 10 a. m., and a reception will be given in the afternoon.

REV. F. W. EBERHARDT, who came home last week from Liberty, Mo., preached two eloquent and earnest sermons Sunday at the Baptist Church. Both services were largely attended and Rev. Eberhardt was warmly greeted by his old friends. He will leave in a few days for Liberty, accompanied by Mrs. Eberhardt and babe.

Mr. Keller's Visit.

HON. JOHN W. KELLER, of New York, was in the city yesterday morning en route to Cynthiana, where he spoke last night. He leaves this morning for his home. Mr. Keller's trip through Kentucky has been one grand ovation, and he has enjoyed his home-coming very much.

Mr. Keller still clings to his newspaper work, and writes a page of New York society news every Sunday for the New York Journal, under the nom de plume of "Cholly Knickerbocker." Mr. Keller is probably as well posted on the news of Gotham's "400" as any man in New York.

Judge Smith's Sentences.

YESTERDAY was a busy day in Judge Smith's court.

Will Evans, Gus Evans and Tom Ashurst, colored, were each fined $61 for gaming.

Chas. Breckinridge and John Breck, colored, were each fined $34 for shooting craps.

Jim Stout and Chas. Washington, colored, were both fined $25 and given ten days in jail for breach of the peace.

All of the fines are to be worked out at hard labor if not paid in cash. Judge Smith has several trials set for this morning.

Died In San Francisco.

John Dundon, of Millersburg, youngest brother of County Attorney Denis Dundon, died Saturday in San Francisco, while en route home from the Philippines.

The deceased was twenty-six years old, and landed at Manila last Thanksgiving Day. He possessed a splendid physique, but the climate of the Islands did not agree with him, and he was in the hospital most of the time. The deceased was a member of the Second Georgia Infantry during the Cuban war.

Perfected At Last!

AFTER years of study and experiment Dr. J. R. Adair, of this city, has perfected a mouth wash that will be a benefit to humanity. This wash will positively stop the decay of teeth, sweeten the breath, and will prevent the loss of many valuable teeth. Dr. Adair's preparation is called "Antiseptaleine," and is doubtless the best mouth wash on the market. Dr. Adair is making preparations to supply the trade with it, and when he begins to manufacture it he will give up his practice and devote his entire time to placing "Antiseptaleine" on the market.

Queer Election Bets.

A Nicholasville young lady has agreed to marry a Nicholasville man if Bryan is elected, and if McKinley wins the young man is to pay the young lady $200.

Out in Kansas forty Comanche County Populists have signed an election agreement with forty Republicans. If Bryan wins the Republicans are to let their whiskers grow for four years, and if McKinley is elected the Pops are to cut their whiskers off and shave once a week.

Only One Asked To Bid.

ONLY one of the Paris newspapers was asked by County Clerk Paton to bid on the job of printing the ballots this year. Last year at least three Paris newspapers were asked to bid on printing the ballots for the last election.

Whenever a big job is let by bids it results in a considerable saving to the tax payers, and so it would have resulted this year—had not favoritism been shown.

In Judge Webb's Court.

In Judge Webb's court yesterday Jim Brown, colored, was fined $15 for being drunk and disorderly.

Will Gillespie was arraigned for carrying concealed deadly weapons, and his trial was set for Nov. 1st, at two o'clock. He gave the $100 bond required. Gillespie was drunk and disorderly and during a fight at the Fordham the pistol dropped from his pocket.

Extra Registration.

Thirty-eight voters got their names on the registration books by making affidavit yesterday at the County Clerk's office. Twenty-seven were Democrats, ten were Republicans, and one non-committal.

The supplemental registration continues to-day and to-morrow.

Breckinridge and Stoll.

Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, the noted orator and editor, and Hon. Richard Stoll, Republican candidate for Congress, will speak at the court house in this city Thursday afternoon, Nov. 1st, at two o'clock.

The Hunters at Estill.

The seventh annual meeting of the National Fox Hunters' Association will be held at Estill Springs, Estill county, November 12. The largest attendance in the history of the association is expected. Fox hunters from Maine to Texas will be present.

WANTED.—Position by a young lady as book-keeper. Address Miss H., box 15, Paris, Ky.

PARKER & JAMES,
FOURTH & MAIN STS. - - PARIS, KY.

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is failing and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centered and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and construction; of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and grace. When the frame and lenses are scientifically fitted by J. C. H. Bowen, optician, they give satisfaction for they are perfect. For this reason, a large number of men who do not know how to fit their eyes will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Next visit—Thursday, Nov. 8, 1900. Hello, 170.
